

TFT CAMP AT QMS- POTTER'S HAND BY DIOCESE OF DELHI (22 June to 23 June)

Workshop for Sunday School superintendents held at Queen Mary's School, Tis Hazari. The Diocese of Delhi CNI organized training for the trainer programme for all the Sunday school incharge superintendents of the Diocese on 22nd and 23rd June 2017 at Queen Mary's School, Tis Hazari Delhi. The theme of the workshop was Potter's Hand. The training specially focused on exploring newer and interesting approaches to teach Bible and to bring qualitative changes in teaching methodology to all age groups. Under the leadership of the Rt. Rev. W.K. Masih the workshop was anchored by Rev.S. Lall, Rev Meena Bhatti and Mrs. C.Hitter. Various issues like stress, Mental Health, knowing the child planning the lesson and case studies were done in order to understand the children and their problems. The teachers were also taught to make inexpensive aids using waste materials to make lessons more interesting. The workshop was participative in nature and the concept of using puppets was appreciated by all the workshop was great learning experience and the hospitality of the school was appreciated by one and all.